- No tax deduction shall be made from the interest in case a resident submits a declaration in writing in the prescribed format of Form 15G/15H, subject to PAN availability in Bank records. Non-residents cannot claim tax exemptions under this rule. A fresh 15G/15H/15AA Form (if applicable) needs to be submitted for each financial year, prior to crossing the threshold limit as specified in the Income Tax Act, failing which TDS will be - deducted.

 Form 15G/H can be submitted online through Accounts->Manage your Taxes on IndusNet.

 Form 15G can be accepted only from Individuals, HUF, Trusts, AOP, BOI, where total amount of interest does not exceed likely not to exceed maximum amount not chargeable to Income Tax during the financial year.

 Form 15H can be accepted only from senior citizens (age of 60 years or more), Please note that under section 20GA of the Income Tax Act, 1961, w.e.f. sts April, 2010, non-furnishing of PAN to the Bank would result in deduction of TDS at a higher rate of 20%. On Resident Foreign Currency Deposits, if the interest exceeds the threshold of Rs. 10000/-, TDS is applicable under section 194A. However tax is not deductible in case RFC deposit is placed by a person having Resident but Not Ordinarily Resident (RNDR) status under the income Tax Act. The status of RNDR will be evaluated separately for each financial year and a declaration needs to be provided to that extra forms.
